Dear Stan,

The syllabus failed to make connection with you so here it is if you care to look at it. As I suggested, the introductory 3 or 4 pages and the explanations leading annexes A through D, plus a skim of the required readings will give you an idea of what we are doing.

Thank you for being here with us. You handled yourself beautifully and won admiration from almost all. If you can believe it, there are still one or two who comment, "What did he say that was new?" The luncheon was particularly stimulating for those of us lucky enough to be there.

Your testimonial to Phil Crowl was very thoughtful and well deserved. You picked a good man and he will be missed.

All the best to Pat and to you. Glad you are getting settled in the new house. It must be lovely. Trina joins me in holiday greetings.

Sincerely,

Tom Weschler
